Extracts of email from Bishop Derek Byrne (Brasil)

Dear Paul,

Hello again from Brazil and thank you for your email with the news of the extremely generous response of your people. It is really tremendous and will be a great help in getting transport for the parish of Tesouro ("Tesouro" means treasure, but I'm afraid the town, while it is a little treasure in some senses, doesn't have much in the line of financial treasures!!)

I've been inquiring about the best way to bring the funds out here.

It would indeed be great if you could bring the money in person - but the distance is a problem! When you get to Sao Paulo you are really only less than half way, in terms of time to get here!

Again my sincere thanks to you Paul for thinking of us here and I promise you the generosity of your parishioners will be very much appreciated by the people of Tesouro and their kind and generous donations will be put to good use.

Wishing you and all the parishioners of Holy Cross, Croy, all the blessings of the New Year!

God bless,

Derek

Create Silence

The noise level before Sunday Mass is intolerable, especially at 11.40am. 'Create silence!' I don't want to be misunderstood. We all understand about babies. Nor are we meant to come and go from church as cold isolated individuals, uninterested in one another. We want our parish to be a warm and welcoming place. We want to meet and greet and speak with one another. There are arrangements to be made, items of news to be shared, messages to be passed. A good word is above the best gift, says the Bible. But it is a question of where and when. A wise elderly priest said recently, 'Two people talking stop forty people praying.'
